KEYNOTE: THOMAS GUSKEY

Thomas R. Guskey, Ph.D., is Senior Research Scholar at the University of Louisville and Professor Emeritus at the University of Kentucky. A graduate of the University of Chicago, he began his career in education as a middle school teacher and later served as an administrator in Chicago Public Schools. He is a Fellow in the American Educational Research Association and author/editor of 25 award-winning books, including What We Know About Grading (with Brookhart, 2019), On Your Mark: Challenging the Conventions of Grading and Reporting (2015), and Benjamin S. Bloom: Portraits of an Educator (2012). Contact him at guskey@uky.edu or www.tguskey.com.

The measurement and reporting of student learning impacts every aspect of the educational system, from funding for remediation to college and career readiness. Join the Riverside County Office of Education's College and Career Readiness unit and the Riverside County Education Collaborative for a powerful day of professional development and discussion.

We will be exploring:

- ★ The purpose of grading.
- ★ The accuracy of grades.
- ★ Grade inflation and deflation.
