

AFRICAN AMERICAN PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL (AAPAC)

Please join us for this year's African American Parent Advisory Council (AAPAC). This series highlights the Riverside County African American Achievement Initiative (RCAAI) Blueprint for Action, a framework created to strengthen family and community partnerships while supporting academic success, emotional well-being, and overall growth of African American students.

Throughout this series, we will explore important areas such as financial literacy, inclusive practices, literacy development, and mental health. Together, we will build connections, share resources, and create strategies that empower students and families to thrive.
